Saint Louise de Marillac: Bibliography to Present Day
EDITED BY
JOHN E. RYBOLT, C.M.

This bibliography sets out to include everything published about Saint Louise de Marillac in English through the year 1999. This listing does not include the following: small entries in lives of the saints, newspaper articles, and various non-print items, such as audio or video tapes, and slides. Vincentian Heritage will gratefully receive and publish additions and corrections to this bibliography, and will publish periodic updates. The editor wishes to thank the many librarians and archivists who contributed to this publication.

I exhort you, as strongly as I possibly can, to reflect upon the obligations you have to God because of the gift of your vocation and because of the many graces that you have received from His generous hand.
(Spiritual Writings of Louise de Marillac, L. 130b)

I am never happier than when I am reasonably contradicted. God almost always gives me the grace to acknowledge and appreciate the opinions of others even when they are completely contrary to my own.
(Spiritual Writings of Louise de Marillac, L. 118b)

Tell all our dear Sisters that I greet them with all my heart and that I beg God to grant them the grace of becoming what His heart wants them to be.
(Spiritual Writings of Louise de Marillac, L. 314)

Gentleness, cordiality and forbearance must be the practices of the Daughters of Charity just as humility, simplicity and the love of the holy humanity of Jesus Christ, who is perfect charity, is their spirit.
