Elizabeth Bayley Seton

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Recommended Sources for Research

Available on Via Sapientiae: http://via.library.depaul.edu/

_____, “The Charity of Christ Urges Us!” The Nineteenth Century Sisters of Charity in the United States

---

1 Titles listed are suitable for scholarly research. Inspirational works for inspiration and general reading are omitted. For example, those for reflection and prayer by Margaret Alderman and Josephine Burns, D.C., Regina Bechtle, S.C., Betty Ann McNeil, D.C., and Judith Metz, S.C.

Godecker, Sister Salesia, OSB, Right Reverend Simon William Gabriel Bruté de Remur, First Bishop of Vincennes, Indiana IN (St. Meinrad Historical Essays, St. Meinrad, IN, 1931)

[Law, Sister Loyola, DC], Simon Gabriel Bruté in His Connection with the Community 1812-1839. (Daughters of Charity, Emmitsburg: 1886).

[Law, Sister Loyola, DC], Mother Seton. (Daughters of Charity, Emmitsburg: 1884).

Note:

The Seton papers are preserved in various archives in the United States. A complete list of repositories appears in Bechtle & Metz, eds., Elizabeth Bayley Seton, 2: xxi. The majority of Seton manuscripts held by the provincial archives of the Daughters of Charity in Albany, Evansville, and St. Louis have been transferred to the new Province of St. Louise Archives of the Daughters of Charity, 341 Seton Avenue, Emmitsburg, MD 21727.

Betty Ann McNeil, D.C.
Updated 8 October 2012