FINDING AID FOR
DePaul University Department of Anthropology records
Collection Description

DePaul University Department of Anthropology records

Date Range: 1989-2011
Quantity: 1.0 LF, 3 boxes

Creator
DePaul University. Department of Anthropology

History
The DePaul University Department of Anthropology offers courses related to the fields of cultural anthropology and archaeology. Professor Jane Eva Baxter, a DePaul faculty member since 2000, has directed archaeological field schools for students in Pullman, Illinois and Edgebrook, Illinois. With professor John Burton, she created and co-directed a Study Abroad program in San Salvador, the Bahamas, which also centered on an excavation project.

Scope
The collection contains excavation reports from Baxter's field school projects, as well as press coverage and Anthropology Department publications.

Arrangement
The collection is currently divided into two series: 1. Publications; 2. Excavations. See series level arrangement notes for further details.

Provenance
Accession numbers: 2010.28; 2012.101; 2014.022; 2014.030

Location
3/17/E

Restrictions
This collection is open for research use.

Language
In English

Prepared By kg 2011; HRL 2013; jmc 2014
Series Descriptions

Series 001: Publications
Date Range: 1989-2003
Quantity: 0.24 LF

Scope:
The Publications series contains nine issues of "Anthropology of East Asia Review," formerly "Newsletter of the East European Anthropology Group." This journal was published by DePaul's Anthropology Department.

Arrangement: Materials are arranged chronologically.
Location: 3/17/E
Restrictions: None

Container List
Box#.Folder#   Folder Title                          Date
001.001        The Anthropology of East Europe Review 1989-1993
001.003        The Anthropology of East Europe Review: Central Europe, Eastern Europe and Eurasia 2003

Series 002: Excavations
Date Range: 2005-2011, undated
Quantity: 0.49 LF

History:
The Excavations series contains reports of archaeological excavations conducted in Illinois and the Bahamas. The excavations were part of the coursework for field school projects and Study Abroad trips developed by Anthropology professor Jane Eva Baxter. Baxter wrote these final reports, sometimes in conjunction with colleagues. Co-authors include Charles Hartley, Richard Butler, and John Burton.

Scope:
The Excavations series contains reports of archaeological excavations conducted in Illinois and the Bahamas, as well as an issue of "Archaeology" magazine featuring an article about the Pullman excavation. The series also includes a legal waiver, which students were required to sign before participating in a class.

Arrangement: Materials are arranged by topic, then chronologically.
Location: 3/17/E
Restrictions: None

Container List
Box#.Folder#   Folder Title                    Date
002.001        Correspondence                2002
002.002        Archaeology Magazine         2009
002.003  Report on Excavations at Pullman vol. 1: The Hotel Florence  undated
002.004  Report on Excavations at Pullman vol. 2: The Carriage House  undated
002.005  Report on Excavations at Pullman vol. 3: The Pullman Arcade  undated
002.006  Report on Excavations at Pullman vol. 4: Backyard Archaeology, the Echols and Sexton Sites  2008
002.008  DePaul University Excavations at Polly Hill Plantation  2005-2006
003.002  Report on Excavations at Polly Hill Settlement, San Salvador, the Bahamas  2008
003.003  Report on Excavations at Kerr Mount Plantation, San Salvador, the Bahamas  2008
003.004  Report on Excavations at Prospect Hill Plantation, San Salvador, the Bahamas  2009-2010
003.005  Report on Excavations at the Old Edgebrook Schoolhouse  2011