Evaluate Your Sources

1. List the full citation for the article you are evaluating:

2. Currency: How timely is your article?
   a. What year was your article published? __________
   b. Is it current enough for your topic? Yes ☐ No ☐

3. Authority: What is the source of the information?
   a. Is the author affiliated with a university or organization? Yes ☐ No ☐
   b. If so, what is the name of the university or organization?
      ______________________________________________________

4. Accuracy: How reliable or truthful is the content?
   a. Does the article refer to studies or the sources from which the information came? Yes ☐ No ☐
   b. If so, list one source: ________________________________________
   c. Does the article include a bibliography or list of references at the end? Yes ☐ No ☐

5. Purpose: Why does the information exist?
   a. What is the purpose of this article? (Check all that apply.)
      ☐ Inform ☐ Persuade
      ☐ Answer a research question
      ☐ Provide an overview of a topic
b. Who is this article written for?
   - General population
   - People in a particular profession
   - Researchers in a specific field of expertise

6. Relevance: How well does the information fit your needs?
   a. Does this article provide information that will be useful in answering your research question?
      - Yes  ☐  No  ☐

   b. Is the point of view of this article in relation to your research question/thesis...
      - Supporting
      - Neutral
      - Opposing

7. Scholarly
   a. Is this article scholarly or not?
      - Yes  ☐  No  ☐
   b. List two reasons why this article is or is not scholarly:
      i. ________________________________
      ________________________________
      ii. ________________________________
      ________________________________

---

Enter your research essay to win!

Get help with your research assignments!

- Research Guides:
  libguides.depaul.edu
- Visit the Research Help Desk:
  We’re open every day!
- Ask A Librarian:
  Chat, text, and email

go.depaul.edu/libraryresearchprize