Collection Description

DePaul University Office of Institutional Diversity and Equity records
Date Range: 2014-2015
Quantity: .15 LF

History
The Office of Institutional Diversity and Equity (OIDE) was formed in 2002 following the publication of the first annual report on diversity in 1999 and an emphasis on a commitment to diversity becoming a central tenant of the university's official strategic plans. Elizabeth Ortiz became senior executive of Institutional Diversity in 2002 and Vice President in 2007. The OIDE supports programs and initiatives intended to promote and celebrate diversity in employment and student life, as well as developing anti-discrimination policies and procedures, implementing BUILD and other diversity training programs, organizing Title IX compliance, and managing the President's Diversity Council.
